

a complete stranger ...asks you out ...offers you a drink / a ride ...follows you

An adult you admire starts:

- complimenting your appearance / body
- touching too much / sitting too close
- finding excuses to be alone with you

SOMEONE YOU ARE CHATTING WITH

ONLINE

- ASKS FOR YOUR ...PICTURE ...PHONE NUMBER ...ADDRESS
- WANTS TO MEET YOU

YOUR DATE

- DRIVES YOU TO A SECLUDED PLACE
- CROSSES THE LINE PHYSICALLY
- DOESN'T STOP WHEN YOU SAY "NO"
- SAYS, "IF YOU LOVE ME YOU WILL..."
- WON'T LET YOU LEAVE

You find yourself

Alone

- In a busy mall
- On a dark sidewalk
- In the parking lot
- At home
- At school

DO YOU KNOW THE DRILL?

You have practiced fire and tornado drills since childhood. You are confident you will know what to do in such an emergency, but what about other risks to your safety?

What would you do in the following situations?

a friend

- Offers you drugs/alcohol
- Asks you to lie for them
- Wants you to compromise your values
- Violates your behavioral, emotional, or physical boundaries.
- Wants to drive your car
- Sets you up on a date
- Demands all of your time.

A friend of a friend -

asks for your number—seems to know “too much” about you—offers you a ride—asks you out—offers you a drink—follows you home—asks to come inside—starts sending you IMs—text messages you during school
