What is TEC?

- * Catholic Movement of Spirituality for older teens and young adults.
- * TEC is a common name for Together Encounter Christ or Teens Encounter Christ.
- * TEC begins with a three day retreat experience. In a fun, Christian atmosphere, youth and adults encounter Christ in one another, through experiences in prayer, liturgy, informal discussions, spiritual talks and dialogue with peers and adults.
- * The theme of TEC is the Paschal Mystery of Jesus – His death, resurrection, and sending us forth in His Holy Spirit. TEC is based on solid and up-to-date theological, doctrinal and psychological principles. Begun in 1965 in Battle Creek, MI, it is an intergenerational movement especially designed for young people beginning adulthood who are ready to discover Christ and live in Him in a more personal way. The movement is active in many dioceses in the U.S. and has received the approval of the Pope.
- * TEC is guided by the bishop of the diocese through his appointed director, the Youth Commission and regional TEC boards. The weekend is sponsored by the Roman Catholic Diocese of Rapid City.
- * The weekends are conducted by teams of lay adults, youth, priests, and religious.

Who is TEC for?

- * TEC is intended for young people 17 years old through early twenties, although mature 16 year olds have also benefitted from TEC.
- * It is experienced best when a young person is ready to begin looking at the direction he or she wants to take in life.
- * With the understanding that TEC is rooted in Catholic doctrine and liturgy, teens and young adults of any denomination are welcome to participate.
