Favor of the Faith
Preliminary Investigation

(Revised May 2016)

This information is intended to guide those who may wish to petition for the use of the favor of the faith. The dissolution of a non-sacramental marriage by the Pope as the Vicar of Christ can be done, according to the norm of law, in order to favor the faith of a Catholic party. There are many variations of these kinds of cases. The following may help you determine if the favor of the faith may apply, and how to introduce the case.

The following must be proven with moral certitude:

- The non-baptism of at least one of the spouses during the entire time of the marriage.
- The party requesting the favor is not primarily the cause of the breakup of the marriage.
- The intended spouse is clearly not the cause of the breakup of the marriage.
- The promise of the non-Catholic party of the new marriage (if applicable) that the Catholic party will be able to freely practice the Faith, and baptize and educate all children as Catholics.

The officials of the Tribunal of the Diocese of Rapid City conduct the process. Please do not obtain a signed statement from any witnesses about the non-baptism of any party or other facts before submitting all of the papers as described below. The process is prepared in the Diocese according to the norms of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, and then forwarded to Rome where it is presented personally to the Holy Father. There are different possible applications, depending on which persons (Petitioner, Respondent, intended spouse) are baptized.

If, after considering the above information and applying it to the particular case, there seems to be reason to think the favor of the faith may apply, the priest is to discuss this possibility with the Petitioner, and explain the process and the possible time involved. If the Petitioner wishes to proceed with a favor of the faith case, the Petitioner is to do the following:

A. Documents

Complete page 6 (“Facts”). You should obtain all the documents that are pertinent (baptism certificate, marriage certificate, divorce decree). You will be informed of what other documents are needed after the process has begun.

B. Additional Information for the Favor of Faith Process

On a separate paper, or added to the end of your narrative, transcribe the following questions, and then provide complete answers after each question has been transcribed. (Type or legibly write using ink on letter size paper.)

- 1) The full current names, dates of birth, and full addresses (mailing address, city, state, zip code, telephone numbers) of the Petitioner's parents and all brothers and sisters. If any of these persons are deceased, indicate this after their name.
- 2) The full current names, dates of birth, and full addresses (mailing address, city, state, zip code, telephone numbers) of the Respondent's parents and all brothers and sisters. If any of these persons are deceased, indicate this after their name.
- 3) Concerning the non-baptized party to the marriage, whether this was you or your former spouse: [If both of you were not baptized and this can be proven, you may speak with your priest about the possibility of using the Pauline Privilege process.]
 - a. Who is the non-baptized party to the marriage? [You or your former spouse?]
 - b. Names and addresses of all churches attended by the parents of the non-baptized party with any frequency from birth until the non-baptized party left home, if any.
 - c. The baptismal status of the parents of the non-baptized party and what is known about the beliefs of these parents concerning infant baptism and the necessity of baptism for salvation.
 - d. Were any of the brothers or sisters of the non-baptized party ever baptized? If so, why were they baptized and not the Petitioner or Respondent who is said to be non-baptized?
 - e. Names and addresses of all churches attended by the non-baptized party with any frequency from birth until the final separation of the Petitioner and Respondent, if any.
 - f. Was the non-baptized party ever so seriously sick, that he/she might have been baptized without knowing it? Please explain fully what you know about the matter.
- 4) Is the Petitioner on speaking terms with the Respondent? Is the Respondent likely to participate in the process and answer the questions of the Catholic Church?

C. Witnesses

You will need to provide at least two witnesses (other than family members) who can testify about:

- the non-baptism of the person who was not baptized.
- the reasons for the breakup of the marriage.

To be a witness, the person should know both about the non-baptism and the cause of the breakup of the marriage, or only about one or the other of these matters. For each witness give the full name and full address (mailing address, city, state, zip code, telephone numbers). Give the relationship of each witness to the Petitioner and/or Respondent. Indicate how old each witness was when he or she came to know the Petitioner and/or Respondent.

D. Credibility Witnesses

Please submit the names and complete addresses of at least two persons, who are not related to you or connected with this case, preferably Catholics, who have known you for several years and would be willing to write a letter, when contacted by the Catholic Church, regarding your character, credibility, and honesty.

Please Note: Keep a copy of all the information and documents that you submit for your records and in case anything is lost in the mail.

If the Instructor determines that the favor of the faith case will be pursued, the priest and parties will be notified as to the steps that need to be completed. The case is prepared in the Diocese. If all the necessary conditions are proven, the case will be sent to the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith in Rome for review.

The favor of the faith process has the advantage that it does not aim at proving the nullity of the marriage. It is not a declaration of invalidity or “annulment.” The non-Catholic Respondent and witnesses might be more likely to participate if they know they will be asked primarily about the baptismal status, rather than other questions that are usually part of a formal case. However, all of the conditions and requirements of the law must be fulfilled. In addition to other advantages, there may be instances when the proofs and conditions for a favor of the faith dissolution may be obtainable, when the nullity of the marriage cannot be proven. The Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith in Rome is concluding these cases more quickly at present than in the past.

Statement of the Petitioner - Favor of the Faith

I, _____ make the following statement of understanding concerning (Please print your current name)
my petition for use of the favor of the faith in my marriage to _____ (Please print your former spouse's current name)

By my signature below, I declare I have read this statement and understand all that is contained in this statement.

I UNDERSTAND THAT:

- This is an exclusively religious matter and has no civil effects.
- There is no guarantee the final decision will be given permitting me to enter another marriage.
- No guarantee can be given to me about the amount of time it will take to receive a final decision.
- If the favor of the faith may not be used, I may petition for a declaration of invalidity (formal case).
- The decision of the Instructor depends entirely on the merits of the case, based on the evidence presented, and the laws of the Catholic Church regarding the marriage and the conditions for use of this privilege.
- If, according to the laws of the Catholic Church, I am presumed to be bound to any other marriage, or the favor of the faith privilege does not apply, I cannot plan to marry in the Catholic Church, unless it is proven that I am not bound by any previous marriage.
- I must follow the laws of the Catholic Church to be received into the Church by baptism or profession of faith.
- I should observe the laws of the gospel regarding chastity.
- I must not set a date for any future marriage (or convalidation) in the Catholic Church until the final decision is given by Rome, and no priest or deacon is to provide me with even a tentative date for a future marriage in the Catholic Church.
- If a dissolution in favor of the faith is given, the Instructor may require professional counseling be successfully completed before a subsequent marriage in the Catholic Church will be permitted.
- I am obliged to observe confidentiality concerning the proceedings.
- I am to ask my witnesses to cooperate with the process, but I am not to discuss what they should say when they are questioned.
- All information gathered in this matter is privileged for the use of the Tribunal Officials of the Diocese of Rapid City in accord with the laws of the Catholic Church and for no other reason.
- The burden of the proof falls to me. I am obliged to supply the Tribunal Officials of the Diocese of Rapid City with documents, testimony, witnesses and any information that is requested.
- I may request original documents to be returned to me.
- I realize I have the responsibility to keep a copy of all the materials that pertain to my case, in the event anything pertaining to my case is lost in the mail or in any other way.
- I am obliged to refrain from calls to the Tribunal Office inquiring about the status of my case. I will contact my parish priest or advocate as needed.
- I will address written inquiries and correspondence to the Tribunal Office, including the case name (namely, my last [maiden] name - my former spouse's last [maiden] name), and the case number assigned.
- For reasons of confidentiality, no information about my case will be given to third parties (present spouse, fiancé, parents, family members, etc.), and they should not contact the Tribunal Office.
- I agree to cooperate fully with the Tribunal Office of the Diocese of Rapid City and to be bound by the policies of the same.
